

Post Title: Geo-Environmental Engineer

Purpose of Job: To profitably, efficiently and effectively manage site investigation works.

Key duties and responsibilities:

- Supervision of site investigations (working away from home will be required).
- Managing Health and Safety on site.
- Logging of soil and rock in accordance with BS5930:2015+A1:2020
- Supervision of site investigation works.
- Completion of Desk Top Studies.
- Gas and groundwater monitoring and sampling.
- Installation of technical instrumentation such as Vibrating Wire Piezometers and In Place Inclometers.
- Data processing
- Factual reporting,
- Assisting project manager with project related duties.
- Oversee department equipment - allocation, hire, servicing and repairs.
- Travel and attend internal and external meetings as required.
- Adhere to working instructions as specified from internal and external clients.
- Conduct internal paperwork as required.
- Communicate with internal and external parties.

Professional and Technical Skills

- Experience in compliance with CDM regulations and production of H&S documentation.
- Knowledge of UK geology.
- Soil and rock logging skills.
- Use of project related software such as HoleBase SI.
- Site supervision of drilling operations.
- UK Driving License.

Desirable Professional Qualifications

- CSCS Card.
- At least 1-2 years' experience in geotechnical engineering role.
- SSSTS (Site Supervisor Safety Training Scheme).
- PTS (Personal Track Safety).
- Asbestos Awareness.
- 3- Day First Aid Qualification.
- CAT and Genny trained.
- Geology or geoscience related degree.

Personal Skills:

- Conduct business in a professional manner at all times.
- Experience of people management and supervision.
- Flexible in approach to work – both with regard to working hours and working away from home.
- Ability to work to deadlines & targets.
- Ability to work in a team towards a mutual goal.
- Good communication skills.
- Ability to maintain a good working relationship with all external clients.
- Self-motivated with a positive attitude.
- Problem solving.